The music competition will be held at the Performing Arts Center (PAC) on Saturday, February 18, beginning at 6:00pm.

Finalists may be requested to perform at District finals in the March/April time period. The District finals competition is for serious music students. In order for a contestant to move on to District competition, they MUST adhere to District rules, which state vocalists must sing classical and/or musical theater songs, and instrumentalists MUST play a classical piece. The student performance shall not exceed 12 minutes total. Students may use recorded tracks or live accompaniment. Music must be performed from memory at District Finals, and highly suggested for the Big Bear competition.
